'Breaking Ground!' Grand Opening & Gallery Event

VIBE Art Gallery

Apr 22 @ 1:00 pm - 6:00 pm

At 'Breaking Ground!' you will meet the owners and core exhibiting artists of the gallery. This event showcases each of their work and includes a new piece from each celebrating our earth and the official launch of VIBE. Artfully presented paintings, drawings, photography, glass/mixed media, wood turnings and sculptures create the eclectic atmosphere which is uniquely "VIBE".

Rounding out the festivities, VIBE is hosting artist Titi de Baccarat. Titi is an immigrant from Gabon in east central Africa, who now makes his home in Portland, Maine. His story includes an escape from a corrupt government that felt his work to be subversive. Titi is a spirit who embodies love and joy. When you meet him this feeling is tangible both in Titi himself and in his insightful work. There will be a reception for Titi from 4pm-6pm. Come meet him and hear his story of survival and dreams.

FREE, donations welcome: keep the VIBE going!

1777 Home-Front Event

Wentworth House

Apr 29 & 30 @ 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

47 Water St, Rollinsford

When we think about the American Revolution, images of soldiers with muskets come to mind. But how did the war affect the daily lives of civilians and the families left at home? Explore this lesser told side of American history at 1777 Home-Front, a two-day living history event at Rollinsford's historic Colonel Paul Wentworth House on Saturday and Sunday, April 29 and 30.

Visitors to the event will experience the sights and sounds of a household during the American Revolution, and can tour a home which has stood through three centuries of American history. This event will run from 10 am to 4 pm on both days. Admission is $5 for the general public; free for children and members of ARCH.
