

What's new with the Chamber?

In the past couple of month the chamber has made some big changes. Updating our public presence by installing new carpeting courtesy of The Home Depot, lighting and painting by Chris Smith of Somersworth, and new desks brought in by Northeast Office Furniture.

Additional efforts were made by fellow board and community members to make this all happen, so thank you to them as well!

The Greater Somersworth Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce Lindsey Gagnon has been promoted to Marketing & Events Manager! When you visit the newly renovated Chamber office, Lindsey will be the friendly face who greets you, Monday through Friday. Along with her marketing and event coordination duties, she will also be organizing fundraising efforts.
